The city is divided territorially into seventeen Inspection Districts. Each District and the Police force assigned thereto constitute the command of an Inspector.

Each District is divided into Precincts. The territory within each Precinct and the force assigned thereto constitute the command of a Captain.

The Police assigned to traffic regulation on streets and bridges constitute the Traffic Division. The Harbor and River Police constitute the Marine Division. The Traffic and Marine Divisions constitute the command of one Inspector.

Detectives are assigned to Precincts under Chief Precinct Detectives. The Detective force in the precincts within an Inspection District are under an Acting Captain of Detectives. The District offices are subordinate to the Detective Division, which exercises authority throughout the City. The Detective Division is commanded by an Inspector, who is responsible to a Deputy Commissioner.
